General Suspension of Specie Payments. Private telegraph despetches from New York last night concur with the report for the press in stating that the Banks of New York, yield ing to the immense and increasing pressure have decided to suspend specie payments. This, of course, will lead to a general suspension of specie payments all over the United States. We regret the result, but it seems to have been una-

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.—The telegraph yesterday afternoon brought news of the suspension of the Ocean, North River, New York Exchange, Merchants' Exchange, Grocers', Irving, Marine, Citizens', Bull's Head, St. Nicholas, Chatham and Market banks in New York city, and of a general run upon the Wall street banks, amidst such excitement that policemen were called into service to keep order. Where the end of all this is to be, does not appear.

A heavy robbery of specie at the Richmond, Va., custom house, is announced. Two steamboats collided on the Hudson river,

One of them sunk, with loss of some lives. P. S .- The latest despatch, last night, represents financial matters in New York to be as bad as well could be. No less than seventeen of the City Banks suspended payment yesterday, and it was generally believed that the rest would follow Buit to day.

Connection .- We are assured and rejoice to learn that the report of Mr. C. D. Cooke's death, which was quite corrent in this city Monday evening, is unfounded. He was still alive at the last dates, but so low that his recovery is thought to be impossible.

Senator Doclittle at Milwankee. We are glad to learn that Judge Dockirthe has so far recovered from his indisposition that he will be out again to-morrow, and, as he has been accidentally prevented from keeping some of his appointments this week, will speak in this city, upon the great issues of the Campaign, on Friday evening next. We invite the electors of Milwaukee, of all parties, to come and hear

An Outrage on Justice. In our record, yesterday, of the proceedings, in the Circuit Court, Judge McArraur presiding, appeared the following:

State of Wisconsin vs. Wm. Henderson, inury, under direction of the Court, returned a verdict of not guilty, the witness on the part of the prusecution not appearing at the opening of the court this afternoon to conclude her examination, the court having waited a sufficient length of time, and also having waited at the commencement of the rivil for the covers.

the commencement of the trial for the same witness one and a half hours. About two weeks ago, the prisoner and one other man, mates of the Propellor Sciota, were arrested here, on the charge above mentioned, indicted by the Grand Jury, and committed for trial. The trial of Henderson, was set down for Monday. During the morning, the woman appeared, was fully examined by the Prosecuting Attorney, told a straight story and made out a strong case against the prisoner. The cross-examination was commenced by the prisoners Coun cil, but had not been concluded when the Court took the usual recess about noon.

When the Court met again, shortly after 2 P M. neither the witness (who could not speak a word of English) nor the interpreter, was present. It was under these circumstances, and at the urgent instance of the Counsel for the prisoner that the Judge directed the Jury to bring in a verdict of Not Guilty. Thereupon the prisoner was discharged, though one of the Jurors, a respectable citizen, assures us that he thought the prisoner guilty and so said.

The proceeding strikes us as not only extraordinary, but utterly subversive of Justice. The woman resided within few minutes walk of the Court House, and was in attendance there, at three o'clock, just after the prisoner had been discharged. She understood, it is said, that the Connsel had adjourned to that hour. The outrage complained of was an infamous one. The victim was a poor German woman, unable to speak English, and (except her two children) the only passenger on board. Her story charged the two mates of the Propellor with frightful brutality. No rebutting testimony was offered. And yet, in the midst of this criminal trial-in the casual absence of the prosecuting witness. and against the verdict of one as least of the Jurors, the prisoner is discharged and the case dismissed! If this be Law, surely it is not Justice. The public demands an explanation of the matter, and, for the credit of Milwaukee, we hope to see one which shall relieve our Circuit Court of what would seem to be a most serious

The Rumored Assignment of the Illinols Centrul traitroad.

Where there is much smoke there is apt to be some fire. As we said yesterday, the town was full of rumors on Saturday that the Illinois Central Railroad Company had made an assignment. We could not credit the report and so stated.—Since then we have made further enquiries, and understand that an assignment was made of the rolling stock in the nature of a mortgage, to parties who had advanced money to meet floating colligations. The untunded debt of the company is said to be two or three millions of dollars.

A short time since, a call for ten per cent was

A short time since, a call for ten per cent was made upon the stockholders. Money in the meanwhile had been borrowed on short paper, in anticipation of the payment of the ten per cent call. A great many luited to respond, in consequence of the deraugement of the money market. This paper fell due, which added to other floating obligations exampled that the tenure for ing obligations eramped the treasury for means to meet the drafts upon it. Some of the paper went to protest on Saturday, and to secure the holders of the residue, a morizage was given on the rolling stocks. This was magnified by rumor into an assignment of the entire property of the company. The rolling stock of the road is valued at $2,844,730, and constitutes in itself security for the fluctual galaxy.

New York Dry Goods Market. Trade is brought to a stand in the midst of the fall season. Collections are impossible, from the wapt of exchange in the exterior on New York, want of exchange in the exterior on New York, and the same want inspecies remitances to take up notes payable in New York, thus compelling jobbers to take up both sides of their bill-book. Such a necessity as this imposes a heavy burden upon merchants. Many are staggering under it, and it is no wonder that many have succumbed. The orders sent out to Europe for the spring importations are small. The quarket is very improve portations are small. The market is very irregu-lar as to prices, both for foreign and home-made goods. Is domestic goods there appears to be a very general suspension, which must in the end bring down the price of cotton, and induce an advance in the price of goods.—Independent 8th.

Boston, Oct. 13-4 P. M. The suspension of Mesers, T. & W. P. L. commission merchants, on State street, is an nonneed.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18-8 P. M. New York, Oct. 18—8 P. M.
The Fall River steamer Empire State struck a rock at Hurlgate, last evening, during the prevalence of a dense fog, and had a large hole stove in her bow. She was backed off, and groped her way back to the city, where she landed all her passengers in safety. The water was at one time above the cabin floor, but never beyond the control of her pums. She was entirely fired water at 12 o'clock this noon, and goes on dock today for repairs. The baggage and freight escared faith.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3-9 P. M To-day has been a very exciting one in finan-tial matters. Up to 2 o'clock 15 city banks had auspended. The following is a revised list: Bank of New York, Artisans, St. Nicholas, Chatham, Ocenii, Market, Butchere & Drovers: Merchant Oceani, Market, Butchere & Drovers, Meichanna-Exchange, Irving, Citizens', Tradesmane', Bull's Head, New York Exchange, North River, and Marine—the latter, it is said, was stopped' by an it is presumed that other banks have been stop-ped in the same way, as by this means the penalty of winding up which is attached to sus-pension, in most cases is but temporary. This state of affairs, when generally known, will un-doubtedly serve to allay the present undue ex-citement.

Wall street at 2 o'clock was crowded with an anxious mass of people; the steps of the banks were also blocked up by people forcing their war into the banks. At the American Exchange D. Leavitt addressed the crowd, assuring them that all the banks wo'd pay all to the last dollar, be also arranged to the crown assuring them. he also unnounced that an arrangement had been made with several of the strongest banks to go through without suspending. It is believed, however, in the street, that the suspension will be general. It is understood that some of our heaviest houses have withdrawn their gold from the banks and replaced it as genied deposits. neaviest houses have withdrawn their gold from the banks and replaced it as special deposits.—
There were rumors during the morning, affecting nearly all the banks in the city, but the list gives all that had certainly suspended up to 3 P. M.—
The others, it is believed, continued to meet their liabilities to the close of business kours.
The sales of railroad stocks at the first board were small, and at a general dechne. In State stocks business was large, at a deuline; excepting in Virginia and Missouri Bank stocks, all sold at a decline.

3 o'clock.

The Commercial Exchange refused to pay specie or bills but certified checks. The Oriental, Mechanica and Traders', Bowery, Savings', Shou and Leather, Continual, American Exchange and Metropolitan Banks, paid their demands up to 3 octock, the usual hour for closing. The whole number suspended to-day with those that were included in the returns of yesterday is 16.

A bank meeting was held this afternoon, at which it is understood that a proposition for a general suspension was discussed, as also the propriety of urging the Governor to convene an extra session of the Legislatore.

New York, Oct. 13—9 P. M.

There was no run on the Savings' Bank; excaping the Bowery and the Beeker Street, they are the strongest in the city, and have on band large quantities of specie. The former at the opening to-day had $100,000 in available means. The following country banks are discredited to-day: Oswego River Bank, Geshen; Merchants' Bank, Syracuse; Brigg's Bank, Glyde; Bonk at Commerce, Carmel; Eagle Bank, Rochester; Bank of Nowburgh, Hudson Co. Bank, Poughkeepsie Bank, Uister Co. Bank, Sussex Bank, Farmers' and Drovers' Bank, Bank of the State of New York, Boboken City Bank, Jersey City Bank, and Farmers' Bank of Montague.

The following in substance are the official residents this evening. The Banks of New York suspend specie payment as far us the paying it over to their counties is concerned, but make regular exchanges of one another's bills, at the Glearing House. Precept and Practice.

The News of yesterday, in a fresh barst of admiration for the Kansas Nebraska iniquity, which by removing the ancient harrier against the extension of Slavery, led to all the subsequent bloodshed, murder and capine in Kansas, thus enumerates the peculiar glories of that measure By the Kansas Act which was the organic by the Kanans Act—which was the organic law of that Territory—it was provided that the people should elect their own rulers, make their own laws, and select institutions for themselves. Slavory was not legislated into or out of Kanass, the proposale stand the law itself? In the control of t ly states the law itself.) In other (20 express) seases the law reserve in other words, the organic law of Kansas, was the embediment of Popular Sovereignty.

Was it ' Let us look a little into the workings of this "law," In the first place, the People wer not allowed to "elect their own rulers;" the Missouri interlopers taking this business into their own hands. Next, they were debarred from "making their own laws"; the "Border Ruffian" Legislature having usurped and exercised that power. Lastly, they are deprived of the right to "select institutions for themselves," the Missouri invaders, the slavery propaganda and the Federal Administration assuming to do it for them. Slavery, says the News, "was not legislased into Kansas" by the organic act. Truly not. and yet President Buchanan proclaims to the world that "Slavery now exists and always existed there," ever since it became the property of the U.S. Nor, according to the same authority, can either the Congress of the U.S., or the Territorial Legislature get rid of the dark stain. And to this monstrous doctrine—a doctrine utterly at war with every principle of Right and Justice, a libel upon Republican Institutions and an indelible disgrace to our country—the whole "Nation-

Sticking to its Text.

The News, having originated the falsehood one or two others to match:

one or two others to match:

There are no phlebotomists like Black Republicans. Witness Wisconsin with increased tax-ation of the people in two years of two hundred thousand dollars. New York bankrupted and her people taxed an amount dottle that of any former year, Ohio with a Governor and Treasurer who ecoly roubed her of more than half a million.

The Treasurer who robbed Ohio of "more than half a million." was John G. Breslin, a Demo crat "dyed in the wool." No Republican had anything to do with this mammoth steal. The great increase of taxes in New York is in the city—a million or so, in a single year—and the city, as all know, is ruled by the bogus Democcity, as all know, is ruled by the bogus Democracy. Two years ago our State Tax, under Gov. Bastow, was Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. This year, under Gov. Bashford, it is Three Hundred Thousand Dollars. Instead, therefore, of an increase, as the News charges, of therefore of an increase, as the News charges, o two hundred thousand dollars, the State Tax for this year is actually FIFTY THOUSAND DUL-LARS LESS than it was two years ago!

Now this fact is indisputable. It is, moreover perfectly well known to the News. That paper dars not publish the table of the State Tax for he past four years, for the simple reason that it would at once give the lie to their persistent ery this story to be utterly false; knowing the very Pax for the second year of Bashroad's Adminisration is Fifty Thousand Dollars less than it vas in the necond year of Baretow-the News does not scruple to repeat its original invention, and seeks to impose upon its readers and the must be the judgment of every honest man, of all who respect Truth and like Fair Play, upon such shameless mendacity? Is it not obvious that the press and the party which resort to such weapous must be reduced to desperate attaits inhed, and have no hope of success nuless they can deceive, impose upon and cheat the People ?

The Success of a Great Principle. The event that the Democratic party have prayed and waited for, namely, a free popular election in Kansas, pursuant to the policy of Popular Sovereignty, at last has transpired.—The late election for delegate to Congress and for a legislature and council was not interrupted by any, wallike occurrence—not even so much, it any warlike occurrence-not even so mu would seem from the accounts we have, as a bou at fistcuffs. Both parties participated in the tion.-News, of yesterday

If the News is to be believed, Fair Play characrized the recent election in Kansas, and the National Democracy" are entitled to the credit of it. Let us see what they did and what the News approves. In the first place they dusfranchised some thousands of Germans and Irish Free State voters, who enjoyed the Right of Suffrage under the organic act, and were deprived of it by the" Border Rufflans" and their "National Democratic "Allies. Here is one "success" of a g eat Democratic "principle."

In the next place, they so districted the Territory that fifteen counties lying along the Missouri River, convenient to the "Blue Lodges," should elect three fourths of the Legislature, while the other sixteen Counties, where the Free State men were largely in the ascendant and in which the bulk of the population resided, were permitted to choose the remaining one-fourth! Tois was another " great principle " over the " success? of which the News and the National Democracy naturally exult.

In the third place, they concentrated som thousands of Federal troops in Kaassa, estensibly to keep the peace, but really to overawe Free tate men, and having nothing else for the troops to do on election day, made a good many of them vote to help along the Pro Slavery cause. Here was the triumphant " success" of another great principle."

These are specimens of what the News calls a free popular election in Kansas." -- said election being conducted in the presence of Federal navonets, with thousands of legal voters arbitra rily deprived of their right of suffrage, and with the Territory so infamously "gerrymandered" that it was almost a physical impossibility for the Free State men to carry either branch of the

The Barstow-Cross papers will make nothing by these invectives against the Reform Democrats, and this outrageous abuse of some of the leaders in the movement. Evidently the Oshkosh Courier does not know what it is talking about. The "Black Republicans" have had nothing to do with this Retorm Convention. It is wholly the work of Democrats, and it the edibout " increased taxation." And yet, knowing | tor of the Courier will come to Milwaukee on the 20th inst., he will get a realizing sense of the everae to be the truth ; knowing that the State strongth and significance of the demonstration. The charge that Messrs. HEUBSCHMANN and NOON-An were "dismissed from office" for "official misconduct" is grossly and notoriously untrue. We find this paragraph in the last Appleton Grescent. It is a fair sample of the utterly reckless tabrications which the Barstow press are now industriously circulating all over the state. Here is a table copied from the State Journal of yesterday, of the annual State Tax for the past lour is creditable to him as a man, and we mention it for his praise. Leading Democrats in this city did the same thing, and we mendoned the fact at the time to their credit. We would call manes if it would be in good taste. It is a Tax has not been increased one cent since last the past three years; and is fifty thousand dollars less than it was in Baretow's second year! This outery about increased taxation &c. com menced with the News and is vigorously kept up by its Barstow echoes, all over the state. The above table proves it to be like most of their electioneering stories, a lie out of whole cloth. Do any of these journals therefore retract it? Not a bit of it. the time, and the moon was shining brightly over the scene. The principal shock occurred a shout twenty minutes past four o'clock. It has proved to be a happy event on one account at least, as it made a change in the current of conversation which has of late been confined entirely too much to one topic, viz, the financial troubles. The Alton Courier of Friday says:

"Yesterday morning, about balf past four o'clock, two severe shocks of an earthquake were feit in the vicinity. We have felt the shocks of earthquakes before, but never one that could compare in intensity with this. Houses A GOOD STORE, No. 28 Spring St., near the American octinf517d2w PATTON & Wilders.

fairly rocked like cradles and the trees shook and leaves rustled as they do in a strong wind." The Evensville (Ind.) Guzette of Friday says the shock was sensibly telt in that city.

The Macoupir County Spectator says. The earth was quite unstendy in this place night before last—two shocks taking place between twelve o'clock and daynight. There is quite a difference of opinion, however, in regard to the time when the first shock took place—some with whom we have conversed swing they felt a lively movement of mother earth just after twelve o'clock, while others say everything was quiet underground till after one o'clock. The second shock was felt between four and five o'clock. A gentleman whose slumbers were disturbed by it says it lasted hearly a minute. His house acted as if it was running over several DWELLING HOUSE TO RENT. A NWW HOUSE, with Gas, Bath Room, and other conniences, within a few minutes welk of the business PATTON & WILLIAMS.

Bayard Taylor, in his last letter to the Tribune rition on board the steamer Guyller, in the Arctic Ocean, on the 27th of July,1857, and in north lati. ade 71° 20', gives this glowing description of the

tude 71° 20′, gives this glowing description of the 'midnight sun :"

As we approached the end of the promontory which divides the Porsanger from the Laxe Fiord, the rocks became more abrupt and violently shattered. Huge masses, fallen from the sammit, fined the base of the precipice, which was hollowed into cavernous arenes, the home of myriads of seagulis. The rock of Sverholt Kluo, off the point, resembled a timesive fortiess in rains. Its walls of smooth missory rected on three enformous vaults, the piers of which were buttressed with sharting piles of rocky fragments. The ramparts, crenelated in some places, and mothered away in others, and one fancied he saw in the ronts and sears of the giant pile the marks of the abot and scars of the giant pile the marks of the shot and shell which had wrought his rain. Thousands of white gulls, gone to their nightly roost, rested on every ledge and cornice of the rock; but prepaations were already made to disturb their slun rations were already made to disturb their slum-oers. The steamer's cannon was directed toward the largest vault, and discharged. The fortress shook with the crashing reverberation; "then rose a Shick, as of a city sacked"—a wind, piercing, maddening, myriad-tongued cry, which still rings in my ears. With the cry, came a rushing sound as of a tempest among the woods; a white cloud ourse out of the hollow arch-way, like the smoke of an answering shot, and, in the space of a sec-and, the air was fitled with birds, thicker than Autumn leaves, and rang with one universal, clauging shrick. A second shot, followed by a second outcry, and an answering discharge from the other coverns, almost darkened the say. The the other caverns, almost darkened the sky. The whirning, rustling and screaming, as the birds circled overhead, or dropped like thick scurries of snow flakes on the water, was truly awint. There could not have been less than fifty thousand in the sir at one time, while as mony more clung to the face of the rock, or screamed from the depth of the vaults. Such an indignation meeting I never attended before; but, like many others I have heard of the time foraction was past before they had decided what to do.

It was now 11 o'clock, and Svarholt glowed in It was now it o does, and ovarrate georee in ferry broanze luster as we rouncied it, the eddies of returning birds gleaming golden in the necturnal sun, like drifts of beech-leaves in the October via Far to the north, the sun lay in a bed of safron light over the clear horizon of the Arctic Ocean. A few bars of dazzling orange cloud fleated above bim, and still higher in the sky, where the calhim, and still higher in the sky, where the ar-fron melted through dedicate rose-color into blue, bung light wreaths of vapor, touched with pearly, opaline finshes of pink and golden gray. The sea was like a web of pile slato-color, shot through and through with threads of orange and saffron, from the dance of a myriad shifting and twickand through with threats of orange and samon, from the dance of a myriad shifting and twinking ripples. The air was filled and permeated with the soft, mysterious grow, and even the very arms of the southornsky seemed to shine through a not of golden gauze. The headlands of this deeply indented const—the capes of the Laxe and Porsanger Fiords, and of Mageroe—lay around us, in different degrees of distance, but all with forcheads touched with supernatural glory. Far to the north-east was Nordkya, the most not shern point of the mainland of Europe, gleaning rosily and faint in the full beams of site sun, and just as our watches denoted midnight, the North Cape appeared to the westward—a long line of purple bhilf, presenting a vertical front of 900 feet in height to the Potar Sea.

Midway between these two magnificent headlands stood the Midnight Sun, shining on us with subdued fires, and with the gorgeous coloring of an hour for which we have no name, since it is neither sunset nor surrise, but the blended lovellesses the chapter moment.

either sunset nor sunrise, but the blended love liness of both -- but shining at the same momen n the heat and splendor of nounday, on the Pa cific fales.

This was the Midnight Sun as I had dreamed it—us I had hoped so see at.

Within lifteen minutes after midnight, there was a perceptible morease of sinting, and in less than half an hour the whole line of the sky had than halt an hour the whole line of the sky had changed, the yellow brightening into orange, and the saffron melting into the pale vermillion of dawn. Yet it was notifier the colors, nor the same character of light as we had had, half an hour before midnight. The difference was so slight as scarcely to be described, but it was the difference between evening and morning. The faintest confusion of one prevailing tint into another had changed the whole expression of heaven and earth, and so impreceptibly and heaven and earth, and so impreceptibly and miraculously that a new day was already present to our consciousness. Our view of the wild chills of Synerholt, less than two hours before, belonged to yesterday, though we had stood on deck, in tell sunshine, during all the intervening time. Had the sensation of a night slipped through our brains, in the momentary winking of the eyes? Or was the old routine of consciousness so firmly stereotyped in our natures, that the view of a morning was sufficient proof to them of the pressistence of a night? Let them explain the phenomenon who cam—but I found my physical sonses utterly at war with those mental perceptions wherewith they should harmonize. The eye saw but one unending day; the mind notch-ed the twenty four hours on its calendar, as be-
